

APA Delaware 2018 Regional Conference

Keynote & Plenary
Speakers

Learn, Network, and Engage!

A two-day conference showcasing exemplary planning efforts in Delaware and beyond with the theme of Planning 360: Economy, Environment and Health.

Georgia Sheridan, AICP
Senior Manager, LA Metro

“Lessons from Madison Avenue – for Planners”

Highlights

- Six tracks: Economic Development, Communications, Environmental Quality, Public Health, Local Officials, and “Other”
- Daily registration available
- Discounts for APA members
- Extended 90-minute sessions provide more depth
- Daily mobile workshops (no extra fees)
- Sessions for both emerging and seasoned professionals
- New Ethics skit by Delaware APA Thespians
- Nationally-known keynote speakers

Tim Chapin, Ph.D.
Dean and Professor
Urban and Regional Planning
Florida State University

“Placemaking and Mobility in an Autonomous Vehicle World”

Tuesday October 23, 2018
Wednesday October 24, 2018
Atlantic Sands Hotel, Rehoboth Beach, DE

Harriet Tregoning
Strategic Advisor

“Planning for Resilience: Positioning our Communities to Thrive Through Changing Times”

CM credits are being requested for all sessions and keynote talks

Making Great Communities Happen

Information at www.delawareapa.org